This new law about carrying a cased gun in a car is no joke. The gun has to be in a case, in the trunk or broken down. And the back end of a station is NOT a car trunk. As to this being in a case, the law says that the case has to be fastened, not just slipped into a case with the flap loose. Also, those jokers who plan on cutting the end out of the gun case for faster handling are in for a surprise, too. That gun is not a surprise, too. That gun is not considered to be in a case. In thort, the law means what it says and there aren't any loopholes. s most doubtful if this col-

The money for this paper will go towards the Sportsman's Clubs new building and recreation center. Truly a worthwhile protect

In my time I have attended a great many football games, high school, college and professionals.

And I guess I have seen about every kind of action that can take place at a game. But seldom have I seen a performance like that which I witnessed last Friday night at the Grayling-Boyne City game when the Grayling school rooters actually cheered long and loud when a Boyne City player was seriously hurt and had to be taken from the field. The cheers were not for the great game the boy had played, but for the fact that an outstanding player had been so hurt that he could no longer play. (Such was the comment near me, at any rate.) School enthusiasm is hard to control. I know, but it's a pretty Thin line between genuine enthusiasm and poor sportsmanship. And that line was crossed Friday night.

The Vikings started their opener last Friday night minus the services of their co-captain adgood defensive end Don Roberts who was home ill. Fleet halfback injury early in the game. Although the was able to stay in the game. his speed was definitely reduced. Quarterback Dick Moore suffered rib injuries, Russ Mudge and Russ Ballenger defensive halfbacks suffered foot and head injuries respectively. Tim Perry hurt his arm and Newt Allison turned an ankle with Bill Lucksted developing a "charley-horse". These injuries definitely damaged Grayling's defensive setup as their speed mertal considerably in test last Friday. The wounded

Flower Gardens About The County

By Polly Mikesell

With the first fall frosts sparking the blaze of nature's ed in the three evergreen trees great autumn fire of colored leaves against the sky, it seems a fitting time to conclude this sumgreat autumn fire of colored leaves against the sky, it seems a fit-ting time to conclude this sum-mer's series of stories of gardens around our county. I do this re-gretfully, because in writing the stories of our local people and stories of our local people and their gardens, I have met many nice people I didn't know before, and have seen many new places I hadn't really had time to get to know. Meeting adjourned at 6:30 p. m.

I always regret seeing summer leave northern Michigan because it leaves sooner than it does elsewhere, and summer means a gent-ler way of living for everyone. Even the people bloom then. And those who have deserved recognition in this series and whom time has not permitted me to visit. However, I shall hope to reach them next year.

However, I shall hope to reach them next year.

The home I want to tell you about this time is that of Mr. and the Mrs. John Knight, located in the Grayling Game Club grounds. The Knights go in for a flower I'm very fond of, and one which provides a full season of bloom with the least possible care—the petunia. What you see first of all is a real old-fashioned buggy in the Knight's front yard, to the left of the house. The seats and back the ledge are planted with tiers of Red Satin single-bloom petunias, and these make a real show piece in their white-painted, black trimmed carrier. As the name implies, the planting is a blaze of solid red. In five different white stone-circled plots, there are beds of deep pink petunias at the right of the driveway and set at the foot of the lawn which slopes upward to the house. Another square bed of petunias lies at the left of the house door as you face it.

These are the color of American Bill Hines charged new directors with their duties.
It was explained that the By Laws must be changed to elect a second Vice President and why Motion by Les Hunter second-ed by Hull that the office of 2nd Vice President be added to ou ion. Motion by Cornell seconded by All Ayes:
Meeting adjourned 9:15 p. m.
A social discussion was held at which time coffee and donuts the house door as you face it. These are the color of American Beauty roses. Among them are set plants of snow-on-the moun-set plants of show-or-the moni-tain, whose pale green and white-streaked leaves set off the deep color of the petunias. There are a few rose plants at the outside of this petunia bed, and they exactly match them in color. The are still blooming and budded, in late September.

There are several other sub-zero rose bushes planted at the outer, left-hand edge of the yard, and in line with them are several Special meeting of the City Council held on Sept. 23, 1957. turned it into one more container for her beloved petunias. Her artistic talent is further display-

A few low evergreens, two three young large leafed castor bean plants, and a native colum bean plants, and a native columbia are planted at the base of the house beside the front porch, and they lead around to the front of the house where a final rectangle of petunias, these once more the bright red ones, bloom before the big living room window. You will believe me now when I say that the Knights really go in for petunias, but to have achieved such striking effects with almost entirely a single flower is to display true artistry. Loope this picture will be repetited.

Their owners may perhaps won-der why our several motel and tourist homes which have such lovely flower displays all season lovely flower displays all season long have received no notice. Let me say that they have been noticed, but since it is simply good business for them to present an attractive picture, it is with an apology for no further mention than this, and thanks for the pleasure they have given, that I have passed on to private homes which also take pride in them which also take pride in them-selves and their town, and go on to proclaim it visually. See you next year.

ZION'S LEAGUE YEAR'S REPORT

The Zion's League had a business meeting September 16th. New officers elected are Bill Stephan, president, Lacey Stephan, vice-president, Elgin Durga, secretary-treasurer. The Commission chairman are, Worship, Linda Leslie, Study, Kay Durga, Service Fred Turher, Recreation, Brian Ashton. All League members are appointed to serve on a commission. The new staff took office October 1st.

In review of the past term of activity we present the following increase, 1957—Met and elected of ticers for the Zion's League, any Newberry, president, Kay rgg, vice-pres, Lani Stephan, Vitreas, replaced in July by

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hanson were accompanied to Saginaw Friday by his mother, Mrs. Marie Hanson, where she visited her son Waldemar and family over the weekend. The Hansons continued on to Lansing to visit their son, Mr. and Mrs. David Hanson and baby, and remained overnight. Later they visited Mrs. Hanson's father, Mr. and Mrs. Nels Corwin, at Swartz Creek. All returned home Sunday.

Mrs. Roy Johnston and daughters Sharol and Nancy drove to Mt. Pleasant Sunday to visit their sons and brothers, the Dwight and Roy Reavas and Richard Reava. On Monday they continued on, with Mrs. Dwight and Mrs. Davight and Mrs. Davight and Mrs. Davight and Mrs. Dwight and St. Patrick party on the latin at the Sportsmens Club hall. April—We were finally getting into the swing of our schedule. We had a backward April Fool party. Our worship program was tancelled due to conflicting activities. The Leaguers voted to combine commissions for the busy summer months. We combined recreation and study.

thority." The worship study pro-gram was conducted as an inter-view with our pastor Elder Roy Newberry. Service and recreation was held at the church. We sang, played games, took down the church storm windows, and raked the yard. June was highlighted with June was highlighted with a sunrise worship service at the down river fire tower hill, attended by families of Leaguers and members of the Branch. This proved to be one of our most spiritual experiences. We also had a campground cleanup and picnic, assisted by Bernard Fowler and Bud Stephan.

July—We followed thoughts on the word of God. Our worship study was around the Vision of Nephi as recorded in the Book of Mormon. The vision was of the discovery of America, and our times and what we can expect. We also decided that the east township dump was a disgrace, and proceeded to make plans for its policing. The township was kind enough to offer us payment for our labors. We were assisted in the policing by Bernard Fowler.

Our thought for August was "What of the Kingdom?" This was our concern in study and worship. our concern in study and worship.
We put on a skit called the "Foundation of Zion." The oldfashioned costumes worn by Linda Leslie and Penny Pettijohn added much to its success. The Leaguers went on a second cleanup pienic from Stephans Bridge to Camp Charlie. Assisting time was donated this trip by Ted and Norval Stephan.
September, our final month, was very active. We had dur business meeting as reported. Our rer-ness meeting as reported. Our recreation program was enjoyed at the Hartwick Pines, with games, a weiner roast and campfire program. Gaylord was our guest and shared in the program. We workgram.
